Overview
This award provides one quarter of support for a continuing graduate student. The Dean’s Fellowship is available to both domestic and international students. It is particularly appropriate for support in the second, third, fourth or fifth year of graduate study.

Eligibility
Eligible nominees must be:

- Enrolled in a doctoral or M.F.A. program, or in an M.A. program in a department for which the Master’s degree is the terminal degree offered
- Demonstrate high academic performance and are in good academic standing.
- Have requisite Spring 2014 registration or Spring 2014 official Leave Of Absence status at the time of nomination
- Be within time-to-degree and normative time standards

Students are not eligible if:

- They have P3 status during the funding quarter
- Hold an active multi-year central fellowship package (e.g. students in a departmental appointment year of a multi-year award)
- Received the Dean’s Fellowship twice previously during the student’s academic career at UCSB

Support
This award provides a $7,500 stipend plus payment of in-state tuition and university health insurance for one quarter. Please note, supplemental nonresident tuition will not be provided.

Application Materials

- This form
- 1 letter of recommendation from the student’s faculty advisor
- Curriculum Vitae (2-page maximum, single-spaced)
